Product information

Size: 2,05 inch diameter

The CotPyr is, like the Coticule, a double side stone. It consists of a BBW top side and a French natural stone bottom side.

The Blue Belgian Whetstone has a grit of about 6000 and the Pyreneen stone layer has a grit of 1200.
The french natural stone side is used to do the hard work of preparing blunt knives, the BBW top layer will do the real sharpening.

Application: Use in the outdoor, montages, building site, general sharpening stone in the kitchenwork.

The combinationstone is delivered with product-brochure, sharpening-instruction and genuineness-certificate.

All prices are valid including legal value added tax plus shipping-costs.
